An insurance proposal form does not bind the Proposer nor the Insurer to conclude an insurance contract. The insurer needs to notify the proposer within 30 days of the receipt of the proposal form of (i) an insurance offer, (ii) the refusal of insurance or (iii) the fact that the insurance is subject to further inquiries, under penalty of damages. Signature of the Proposal form does not provide any coverage to the Proposer.

This proposal form cannot be relied upon, in any circumstances, to claim insurance coverage or any other rights. It cannot be considered as an advice or an offer to contract or a commitment to offer a contract. Only the insurance policy's terms and conditions provide an accurate, binding, description of the cover.
